Klemen Grešak, Deputy Chairman of the Supervisory Board

Klemen Grešak holds a university degree in law and has extensive experience in commercial, criminal, employment and insolvency law, as well as corporate governance. Throughout his career, he has advised companies, various public-law entities and individuals, and represented clients in court and other legal proceedings. He has spent his entire professional career in the legal profession.

He began as a trainee lawyer and subsequently worked at several law firms. After completing his legal traineeship, he practised as an attorney-at-law, and since 2016 has served as Director and Partner at the law firm Grešak & partnerji o.p., d.o.o., where he leads and coordinates legal advisory services and client representation across various areas of law.

In addition to his many years of legal practice, he has continued to develop his expertise in corporate governance and supervisory board activities. In 2022, he successfully completed the training programme for supervisory and management board members organised by the Slovenian Directors' Association and further expanded his expertise in mediation and administrative procedures.
