Mario Pleić, Member of the Supervisory Board

Mario Pleić holds a degree in economics and has extensive experience in banking, finance, and corporate business. Throughout most of his career, he has held senior management positions in the banking sector, specializing in corporate banking, corporate finance, investment lending, factoring, and the development of financial products.

At Sberbank d.d. (formerly Volksbank d.d.), he held, among other positions, the role of Executive Director of the Corporate Division and procurator of the bank, and participated in numerous development and organisational projects, including the bank's integration into the NLB Group.

Since 2023, he has been working in financial consultancy, advising companies on financing solutions, banking products, and the acquisition of development funding and non-refundable grants. Throughout his career, he has successfully combined expertise in finance and business development with extensive experience in leadership, strategic planning, and relationship management with key business partners.
